Address:

I was dispatched to a report of an abandoned 911 call that came in from Springville dispatch. They had a report from a young female who said her brother was hitting her. Dispatch then lost the call. We located the home based on a possible address from the caller. I spoke to the father who said his daughter and son had been arguing and she threatened to call 911. He did not realize she had actually done so. Everything appeared normal with no ongoing problem. I took no further action. WH100
