Case# 14UC07004

I spoke to reporting party regarding a phone scam. Reporting party stated a male individual called stating he was with Publisher's Clearing House and said she won 1.5 million dollars. The male caller stated she needed to go to Walgreens and purchase a $500 reloadable scratch card and then call back with the numbers on the card. Reporting party stated she went to Walgreens and Walgreens stated this was a scam informing her the caller would get the $500 from her and she would get nothing. Reporting party did not make the purchase but wanted to report this phone scam incident. The phone number being called from was 404-719-5379. On call back I was unable to get a live person. WH100

No Further Actions Taken.
