On 1/5/11 at 0317 hours we were dispatched to the report of an abandoned 911 call in the county area. As we responded to the scene, dispatch notified us that the call was actually a fire call. The fire department was already on scene. The fire was in a chicken coop and no other structures were threatened. Apparently the fire was started by a heat lamp. No further actions were taken. WH200

ALARM:

I was dispatched to a alarm at a home. I responded and found the home was for sale and a set of tracks in the snow that went to the front door and to the garage. Due to the key locks on the front door and the one set of tracks it appears that a realtor was checking on the home. All of the doors and windows on the home were secure. I then cleared the call.
