I responded to a home in Woodland Hills in reference to a telephone box which had been opened, but no damage was done. I responded to the area and found nothing was damaged. The home owner could not explain how the box had been opened, but he was concerned about identity theft from someone hacking into his phone system. I told him to keep an eye on his financial accounts, but he should not have a problem. No further actions taken. WH300

On 04/22/2011, I was dispatched to contact the reporting party by phone regarding a civil problem that involved a child custody exchange and a protective order. Due to the protective order the reporting party wanted me to contact his ex-wife and deliver a message regarding custody of their children, contact, and the protective order. I informed the reporting party that the Sheriff's Office is not in the business in delivering messages in civil issues. I told him I would not be contacting his ex-wife unless it was a criminal matter. He was told to have his civil issues resolved at court. No additional action taken. WH300
