I received a detail from dispatch regarding unknown individuals in the drive way of the reporting parties residence. I responded to the location where I conducted an exterior perimeter check of the residence. No suspects were discovered on the premises.

Based on my observations a theft possibly could have occurred; however, the reporting party was unable to tell me if any items were missing from the garage.

Also based on my observations the reporting party was intoxicated, possibly on prescription medication. I cleared the detail and instructed the reporting party to call the Sheriff's Office if they discover any items missing from the garage. WH300
